Title: My mom is the best

Submitted by: Lindsey M. Coyle

My mother should be mother of the year because she is a great mother. My mother has been through a lot and she is so strong. Like how my father died in October of 2007, as my brothers and I sobbed all day. My mother stayed strong. She wanted us to be proud for how our Father lived his life. She inspires me and I love her very much. She helps me everyday. I think its great that she stays strong for us. I know she is hurting inside but she does not want to upset us, so she holds it together in front of us. There are nights when I do hear her cry but I know it is because of the love her and my dad shared after being together 20 years, we don't have all the money in the world but my mother trys her best to help us so she works 10 hour days. That might not sound like a lot but she leaves us at 4:00 am and gets home at 4:30 pm. I think she is the BEST Mother in the world. She is my Mom and I am very proud of that. I want to be able to live up to my mother shoes. She is so unselfish as she helps everyone, even though she comes home from work tired she will always sit down and help me with homework, read me a story or just talk. She is my mom and I am very proud of that. Its hard to see my mom work so much, and even though she is tired and maybe had a bad day she still brightens up a room with her smile. I am glad that my mom is my mom, I think I am lucky to have her as my mom. I would not trade her for anything.

My Mom deserves to be mother of the year because she is a very kind and caring person. She always puts me first and rarely thinks about herself. That is why I want her to win this competition. I just want her to do something nice for herself and not have to worry about everything that is going on. My Mom is always saving money for my college fund, wanting me to have a good education, and so she almost never buys anything for herself. She is the kind of person that makes the best out of what she has, and I admire her for that, because I do not possess that talent. Another thing my Mom does is whenever I feel ill, she will take very good care of me, and give me everything I need. Also, she is my crying shoulder and is there whenever I call for her. Another reason she should be mother of the year is because, she never snaps at me. She is almost always calm and collected, and even if she does blow her top, she will always apologize after. Whenever I am mad at her, no matter what I have said, and how much it hurt, she will always accept my apology, just as I do for her. My Mom just spent a lot of money for me to go to Boston with my school so I could perform there with my choir and so I could learn new things. She cares about me and she shows it. My Mom may not be perfect but I love her for who she is and she loves me for who I am to.

My name is Kane Quiroz, and I am the first great grandchild, and I want to let you know that I am so happy my grandma is taking good care of me. I was a baby when I went to live with her.

My grandma is alone and she does everything for me. She is 63 years old. She teaches me to be good and respectful. She put me in karate class, to teach me to be a good role model; I am now an orange belt and in leadership. Class (2) times a week.

Grandma was in an accident and hurt her back, even with the pain she is always ready to help. She says "I keep her young!"

She cooks my favorite food that I like.

I love my grandma so much she takes me to church and teaches me about god. She wants me to learn all that I can; so when I grow up I will be successful.

My grandma helps her other 11 grandchildren and 9 great grand children too.

My grandma never does anything for herself, she buys me all the things I need but, she does without.

She says she is saving to rent us a house, so we can move out of this apartment, cause I want a puppy so-so bad.

I think my grandma would like to win, because she really needs to relax and I love her and she is my "MOM".
